

Department of Family Medicine and Primary Care
The University of Hong Kong

Research Incubation workshop

Saturday, November 26, 2016

2/F, Room A2-02, William M.W. Mong Block, Faculty of Medicine Building

Participants will present their research proposals for discussion

Facilitator: Prof. David Weller

Co-facilitator: Dr. William Wong

Agenda

09:30-10:00	Arrival and registration
10:00-12:30	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Family medicine research and academia in the UK Professor David WELLER, James Mackenzie Professor, Head of Section; and, Co-Director for Centre for Population Health Sciences, The University of Edinburgh, UK2. Promoting and facilitating underprivileged groups to screen for colorectal cancer Dr Carlos King Ho Wong, Research Assistant Professor, Department of Family Medicine and Primary Care, The University of Hong Kong3. Screening of obstructive sleep apnea in nocturnal dipping and non-dipping hypertensive patients Dr. TK Tse, Resident, Family Medicine and Out-patient Department, Kwong Wah Hospital, Hospital Authority4. Impact of multi-morbidity and polypharmacy on disease control and healthcare utilization among diabetic patients in a general outpatient clinic in Hong Kong - A 2-year-retrospective study Dr SUNG Cheuk-chung, Resident, Department of Family Medicine and Primary Health Care, New Territories West Cluster, Hospital Authority5. Effectiveness of a smartphone application on parent-child physical activities to promote health-related quality of life of children from low-income families: the FUN MOVE randomized controlled trial Ms. Rosa Wong, MPhil in Community Child Health (The University of Hong Kong), B.A. in Psychology (University of Rochester), PhD Candidate